GUIDE FOR AUTHORS

(Version June 2015)

The "Institut Scientifique" publishes three series:

- Bulletin de l'Institut Scientifique (Continuation of the "Bulletin de la Société des Sciences Naturelles et Physiques du Maroc"): original articles, brief notes ... multidisciplinary series (1976-2000), split up since 2001 into 2 sections, Earth Sciences and Life Sciences. One issue per year. Worldwide distribution.
- Travaux de l'Institut Scientifique : monographs, dissertations, conference proceedings, maps, etc. 4 series: General Serie, Ser. Geology and Physical Geography, Ser. Botany and Ser. Zoology. Irregular publication. Worldwide distribution.
- Documents de l'Institut Scientifique : reports, working papers Irregular publication. Limited distribution.

These series are open to all scientific products linked to nature in Morocco, in the Mediterranean region and eventually elsewhere in the world. After reviewer reports, the Editorial Board decides the final acceptance of manuscripts and the publication series (Bulletin, Travaux or Documents). The admitted languages up to now are French, English, Arabic and Spanish.

The manuscript must be submitted by email to the Publishing Service (edition@israbat.ac.ma; edition.israbat@gmail.com) with a letter stating that 1) all authors approve the submission for publication, 2) the same manuscript has not been previously published (even partially) and will not be submitted to another journal before the response of the "Institut Scientifique" (letter template available at <http://www.israbat.ac.ma>).

Any irregularity (plagiarism, piracy or recovery of data without permission from the authors and/or publishers, offenses against natural or legal persons ...), ascertained or not by the Editorial Board and/or evaluators, is severely condemned; the authors should assume their full responsibility.

PRACTICAL INSTRUCTIONS

(Especially for "Bulletin de l'Institut Scientifique")

Except for special reason, the manuscript should consist of the classic chapters in scientific publications, namely: Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion and Conclusion. Opt for a simple style, with short and relevant sentences.

For the presentation, the following standards must be met.

A4 format

Title of reasonable length; Times 14, centered, lowercase.

Author(s): first name (lowercase) and name (small cap); postal and email addresses of all authors; mark with an asterisk the name of the corresponding author.

Abstract: in the language of the manuscript; maximum ½ page.

English abstract; translate the title as well.

ملخص : Arabic abstract; recommended but not mandatory; translate the title as well.

Keywords: 4 to 6, after each abstract in the same language.

Abridged English version (2 to 3 pages): if the article is in another language. This version must briefly present the methodology and the main results, with the possibility to references to the figures and the references list; paragraph titles, but only one order (no subtitle).

Text: 20-25 pages maximum, Times 10, 1.5 spaced.

Important details:

- Latin scientific names in italics;
- Avoid as much as possible the footnotes;
- Decimals use "," in French (e.g. 1,25) and "." English (e.g. 1.25.);
- Insert non-breaking space before ":" and ";"
- For bibliographic quotes, follow the following examples: ... According to Sabhaoui (1988), these species ...; This section is incomplete (Ghardid 1957) ...; ... This is a continental climate (Karbid & Bouachouch 1994) ...; ... This assumption is not valid (Chekrouni et al. 1998).

1st order title: Times 10, BOLD CAPITAL, centered.

2nd order title: Times 10, bold lowercase, left justified.

3rd order title: Times 10, bold italic lowercase, left justified.

4th order title: Times 10, lean lowercase, preceded by a digit (e.g. 1.).

Illustrations: good quality required. Figures (graphs, drawings, photographs, maps, etc., with graphic scale) and Tables separately numbered; think about readability in case of reduction. Provide a caption of all the illustrations with titles translated into English. References in the text: (Fig. 1), (Fig. 3–5), (Tab. 1), (Tab. 2–4).

Figures in jpeg format for photos; jpeg and excel formats for graphics. Tables in Word or Excel.

Acknowledgements: at the end of text just before the references.

References: strictly limited to those noted in the text; respect alphabetical order and chronological order in case of same author(s); full titles and names of periodicals (without abbreviations); if more than 3 authors, be limited to the first three names followed by et al.; follow the following models.
